

Construction Contract Claims – Principles, Practice & Processing

[CPD0311/2026]

Disputes and claims are a fact of life in the construction industry but it does not make them any easier to deal with. This training will explore the salient legal features in construction claims commonly encountered in Hong Kong. It is vital for professionals in the construction industry to be alerted to issues in the subject area. Through an interactive learning approach, this training will involve presentation, discussion and/or group exercises with illustrations of real-life situations and case studies.

Content:

- △ Construction law and contract claims
- △ Delay and disruption
- △ Variation and change orders
- △ Payments and non-payments
- △ Bonds and performance security
- △ Forensic techniques in claim analysis
- △ Case reviews / situation studies
