

[Notice]

Guidelines for the Provision of Services for Candidates Standing for the Engineering Functional Constituency / Information Technology Functional Constituency Election

As approved by the Council, the Institution issues Guidelines for the Provision of Services for Candidates Standing for the Engineering Functional Constituency / Information Technology Functional Constituency Election (Guidelines), and will provide equal and fair services to all candidates standing for the concerned Election.

After the closure of the nomination period, the candidates announced by the Registration and Electoral Office will be informed individually of the services to be provided by the Institution.

You may wish to note in the paragraph 14 of the Guidelines that the Council has decided that any request from any HKIE member using his office title of the HKIE and the name of the HKIE to support any candidate standing for the 2020 LegCo Election will not be acceded. The office title, without being confined to the office or position presently held, includes current and past office titles of the HKIE.

The HKIE Secretariat

Download Guidelines for the Provision of Services for Candidates Standing for the Legislative Council Engineering Functional Constituency / Information Technology Functional Constituency Election (2020)